WEEK #2

We live on Earth. We need to take care of where we live.

What do you do to take care of where you live?

Do you make your bed or put trash into the trash can?

Reading Passage:

Let's Celebrate Earth Day!

On April 22, people all around the world celebrate Earth Day.

We remind ourselves that our Earth is precious and that it's our job to take care of it.

On Earth Day, my friends and I plant trees and bushes at our local park.

Extended Read 1 (continued)

Artifacts are things made by people.... We can learn about how people lived and worked by looking at old tools.

Artifacts show what daily life was like in the past. Old toys tell us how people used to have fun!

A primary source is directly connected to the topic you are researching. A primary source offers firsthand knowledge...

Once you decide on a topic, primary sources will get you started on your journey into the past.
