

Childcare for Children of Essential Workers

State Superintendent Tony Thurmond announced that the CDE and the California Department of Social Services have issued new guidance that will facilitate child care for children of essential critical infrastructure workers, children at risk of abuse or neglect, and children with disabilities or special health care needs. The guidance was a requirement of Governor Gavin Newsom's Executive Order N-45-20, issued April 4, and was created in collaboration with the California Governor's Office and the Department of Finance.
