3. Patricia Mosqueda Weber

Each candidate had the opportunity to answer each question.

Jesus Garcia was not present at the meeting.

Karesha Boyd “Hello everyone! I’ve been around this PAC Committee since the beginning. I’ve gone to the Parent Trainings for the school district as: Parent Ambassador. I’ve served at the school sites at different levels. I’ve been the PTO President and if you know me you know how hard I’ve fought for my children. I think you would know me to fight for your children as well and also on behalf of the parents”.

Patricia Mosqueda “Good afternoon, I postulate myself for President in this committee, the reasons why are because I come to realize that I see the benefits that are available for our kids. I have my son at Weber and daughter in kindergarten. I have been involved in other committees that's why I would like to continue being involved. I’ve been a member of the other committee Latino PAC, and many years ago when my son was at Hong Kingston I was a member of the ELAC committee”.

Voting opportunities were available, via email to the FRC, completing a ballot in person, and or by sending a private chat message to Maggie Canela FRC Parent Liaison. Current Members were given the opportunity to cast their vote until 7:15 pm.
