6.1 ParentVue Presentation - Poaze Lee and Team, Technology & Innovation Services

- Any parent/guardian with educational rights to a student can create a ParentVue account
- ParentVue is for currently enrolled students
- ParentVue eliminates the need to complete the large packet of paper forms we have typically been given every year
- Parents will be able to view attendance, assessments and other student data in one place
- Parents can create an account by either downloading the app or going onto the webpage. The steps are slightly different depending on the device. Follow the steps. Check your email for the Activation link and then create a username and password
 - You will then enter your family information

- parent/guardian information
- Enter Emergency Contact information
- Student Enrollment information
- Required Documents
- Review & submit
- Dr. Rodriguez
 - The District is trying to become more efficient and improve communication
 - Ability to track students attendance, grades, and guardian information
 - Weber has almost 100% compliance with ParentVue
- Q&A:
 - Q: I have the application from years ago. Do we still have to fill out the forms?
 - A: 1 application will cover all 3 children
 - Q: What security measures are there for multi-factor authentication?
 - A: We can look into that for individual accounts and find out if it is an option that people can choose to opt out of.

7.7 Conference Recap

Earlisha - NABE

- In Atlanta, She enjoyed it. Attended many informative workshops.
- Focus on AI
- Addressed the fracture relationships between assessments
- Visited HBCU's
- Proposed district purchase a book that was highlighted during the conference

Letricia - CAAASA

- In Hollywood. She enjoyed the Parent Summit Conference Day.
- Very inspiring
- One major take away was not waiting for the district to provide spaces for parents, but for parents to gather when and where they can in order to get things planned, organized, and done for their kids

Patricia Mosqueda President of PAC attended CABE. She shared with us her presentation on the CABE Conference that she attended from March 25-29, 2025 in Long beach, CA. For her the conference was a great learning experience, she had the opportunity to attend many workshops. Patricia spoke, and connected with the Founder of CABE Dr. Cesar E. Cortes. Also with the Director of Parent Relations, Mrs. Maryanna Lee, and with Mr. Raul Maldonado the current President of CABE. In conclusion Patricia was able to learn, and gather information to bring back and share with our SUSD parents and families.

8.0 Announcements

8.1 Grocery Distribution - April 9th 11am-1pm at the FRC

8.2 Next PAC Meeting May 1st at the FRC

9.0 Questions or Comments -

Ruth Rodriguez: Some parents don't have a car. How can we get food distribution if we don't have a car?
A: We offer walk-in services. We also open for walks up the next day on Thursdays for distribution if you don't have a car. It is a safety hazard to have people walking up while cars are passing. We also have our social service worker that can deliver bags to your home.

Comment :Rosie: there will be SPED tours to high school in order to ease apprehension of the transition in the fall.

Comment: Citizenship classes 12-2pm via zoom, hosted by SFA

Q:Is ParentVue live now?

A: It will be July 1st.

Raffle: Questions and Winners.

Patricia asked questions based off of her presentation she just presented on CABE.

1. Which year was CABE established?
2. Who was CABE's Founder ?
3. What is the purpose of CABE?

Parents enjoyed answering the questions from CABE.

Raffle Winners are
