Purpose and Description

Briefly describe the purpose of this plan (Select from Schoolwide Program, Comprehensive Support and Improvement, Targeted Support and Improvement, or Additional Targeted Support and Improvement)

Taylor Leadership Academy is implementing a Schoolwide Program.

In March 2020, Taylor Leadership Academy was identified as a Comprehensive Support and Improvement (CSI) school.

Briefly describe the school's plan for effectively meeting the ESSA requirements in alignment with the Local Control and Accountability Plan and other federal, state, and local programs.

Taylor Leadership Academy's school plan aligns with the district's Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP) as each goal (and its associated strategy (ies)/activity (ies)) can be referenced to the LCAP's intent.

Stakeholder Involvement

How, when, and with whom did the school consult as part of the planning process for this SPSA/Annual Review and Update?

Involvement Process for the SPSA and Annual Review and Update

Taylor Elementary developed a one-year (2020-2021) school plan which aligned to the district's goals and incorporated strategies specific to its school. The original plan was reviewed by the school's School Site Council on February 11, 2020 and obtained board approval on May 13, 2020. Throughout the 2019-2020 school year, the School Site Council reviewed the activities relating to budget adjustments and modifications to the strategies originally identified. Taylor Elementary and its School Site Council reviewed the progress of the 2019-2020 culminating the document 2019-2020 SPSA Evaluation. This evaluation included responses to four questions focusing on each goal within the SPSA. Question 1 inquired about the implementation of strategies within the plan. Question 2 inquired about the effectiveness of the strategies within plan. Question 3 inquired about material changes – fiscal or programmatic. Question 4 inquired about future changes based on the results of questions 1 and 2. In the school year 2019-2020 Taylor Leadership Academy initiated a needs assessment process that included a review of the school's vision and mission statements, educational expectations, student data, state and district assessments, and achievement gaps. These meetings with stakeholders included the School Site Council, English Learner Advisory Committee, AVID Leadership Team, Comprehensive Support and Improvement Team, school staff, parents, students, and the learning community. As a result of the stakeholder involvements and data reviews, Taylor Leadership Academy has updated its Decision Making Model (a component of the CAN). The committee concluded that it is important for Taylor parents continue to receive resources, trainings, workshops, etc. to better support their children at home with daily routines and practices that lead to improve student academics and attendance. Staff will receive on-going professional development trainings in AVID, Ready and Benchmark curricula, pedagogy, etc. to enhance teaching practices and improve academic outcomes for students.

Resource Inequities

Briefly identify and describe any resource inequities identified as a result of the required needs assessment, as applicable.

As a Comprehensive Support and Improvement school, Taylor Leadership Academy will continue to provide ongoing services to decrease its highest student groups, Homeless and African Americans, chronic absenteeism rates. In addition, Taylor Leadership Academy will carry on with providing before, during, and after-school academic support for Tier 2 and Tier 3 students that need the extra academic support. Lastly, Taylor Leadership Academy will provide social emotional support utilizing Positive Behavioral Intervention and Support curriculum to support students with making proactive choices and decisions.

Annual Review – Goal 1

SPSA Year Reviewed: 2018-2019 (Year 2)

Respond to the following prompts relative to this goal. If the school is in the first year of implementing the goal, an analysis is not required and this section may be deleted.

Analysis

Describe the overall implementation of the strategies/activities and the overall effectiveness of the strategies/activities to achieve the articulated goal.

Implementation

Implementation 1.1 Taylor Leadership Academy has a school wide expectation that all classrooms TK-8th Grade have a WICOR wall in the classroom with posted resources, current student work samples, and teacher created AVID posters that help guide student access to writing, inquiry, collaboration, organization, and reading strategies. To fully implement the strategies across the content areas, strategic teacher trained teacher paid professional development were implemented after school focusing on areas of needs. The implementation teams created writing rubrics that are aligned to the California Common Core State Standards and provided trainings around expository, informative writing as well as response to literature writing. A school wide academic writing contest was organized by the implementation teams providing students with writing prompts that the students had to respond in the forms of an essay, paragraphs, or sentence depending on the grade level of the students. The implementation teams then analyzed the writing samples and provided students with writing incentives and awards for the exemplary work.

1.2 Kinder through 2nd graders were provided with an ongoing assessment process where the teachers had used ESGI an online program to assess their student's recognition of site words, phonemic and phonological awareness development, and the ability to have fluent reading skills. Practice resources were sent home for students to have and to be able at home practice the skills that they need to improve upon. In addition, level readers at the student's level of reading were given to students to practice at home with their parents/siblings. At school, the teachers had provided students with more challenging grade level readers and practices and pulled small groups of students to provide additional support and reinforcement. 3rd through 8th graders were provided with supplemental grade texts, poetries, biographies, autobiographies, expository readers, fictional readers, and short novels and plays exposing them to multicultural forms of literature, story lines and narratives. In the classrooms, students engaged in collaborative literature exercises around reader's theaters as well as small group novel circles.

1.3 Before and after school tutoring were offered almost every day of the week. English learners attended before school tutoring and were given access to Rosetta Stone. Through the afterschool tutoring program and also supplemented by teachers who were not affiliated with Step Up, students were provided services in math, ELA, and STEM projects that were align to current themes, topics, or concepts that were taught in the classrooms.

1.4 Ongoing collaborative approach among the implementation teams, instructional coach, and the site Leadership Team creating a monthly forum for students to take ownership of what they were learning in the classrooms and to provide opportunities for students to showcase what they have learned, to share what they know, and to present artifacts of their learning as well. Each area of the WICOR was targeted at the AVID/STEM showcases that took place in the school and in the classrooms where primary classes were paired up with intermediate/middle school teachers and their students. Taylor Elementary – Goal 1 School Plan for Student Achievement| Page 19 of 39

1.5 A combined effort between the Quality Instruction/Collaborative Learning Team, instructional coach, and school Leadership Team, teacher trained teacher professional developments were put together to provide professional learning opportunities to support teachers with the writing process and teaching writing. The sessions provided ongoing and professional development trainings for teachers that are aligned with the implementation of learning projects, instructional planning, lesson design and then meeting the diverse needs of English learners as well as students with special needs.

1.6 Built into the Tuesday's Collaborative PLC Grade Level Team Meetings, teachers were asked to focus on developing strategic lesson plans that targeted learning to read (Kinder - 3rd Grade) and reading to learn (4th - 8th Grade). With the assistance from the coach and administrators, teachers identified what they wanted from the lessons and then identified strategies to support the learning activities. Students then would be assessed based on the rubrics that the grade level team had developed. To help reinforce learning to read and reading to learn, small groups of students received 4 on 1 or 3 on 1 student-to-teacher academic support.

1.7 Staff wide training focused on social-emotional development and mindfulness activities were discussed at the Implementation Teams Meetings that were conducted by the Healthy Culture, Inspirational Environment, and PBIS Teams. In collaboration, the team implemented school wide norms, established life skills incentives for students, and put in place school pride events connecting a college bound culture to every Friday's morning gatherings on the primary playground for students, parents, and the learning community. In addition, events such as the Staff vs Student Athletic Challenges, No Bullying, Spirit Week and so on were brought about to build a learning community and student connectedness to the culture of Taylor Leadership Academy.

1.8 Four Academic Parent Teacher Team Meetings took place last year providing teachers and parents the opportunity to meet and have a face to face conversation. Three of the Academic Parent Teacher Meetings were conducted as whole class and one of them was individual conferences. Teachers were given the ability to choose (1) language arts and (1) standard in math to build foundational skills sets that the learning activities/games connected with the two identified standards as well as a common formative assessment to have pre and post data. At the meetings, parents participated in ice breaker activities, so every participant was comfortable getting to know each other. Student pre and post data were presented anonymously so each parent knew where his/her child's data was. Likewise, academic learning games were shared with parents, so they can go home reinforcing those skills games strategies and game-based learning approach.

1.9 Several teachers attended the AVID Summer Institutes, participated in the Teacher Trained Teacher professional developments after school, and created a road map that aligns California Common Core State Standards to the (8) mathematical teaching practices. Teachers received trainings on; how to help their students to use math manipulatives to build a conceptual understanding of the problems, how to look at students breaking down their conceptual understanding of the problems and how to engage students quizzing each other not just on how they got the correct response. (AVID tutorial and the TRF)

1.10 School wide norm set in place by the Healthy Culture/AVID College Awareness Team and Leadership Team, every classroom was expected to adopt a university at the beginning of school and then to take turns presenting their colleges during College Pep Rallies which took place on Fridays. A-G lessons, career day, and mock college admission events were embedded into the learning where students were provided with several opportunities to take part in academic field trips to UOP, UC Davis, Delta College, and California State University Sacramento. Furthermore, specialty high schools visited Taylor Leadership Academy and provided students with resources and information. Taylor Elementary – Goal 1 School Plan for Student Achievement| Page 20 of 39 1.11 Teachers received ongoing support from the Implementation Teams, their PLC team, and instructional coach. The trainings provided teachers with insights on; focusing on the quality and diversity of the questions that students are being asked, observing the levels of inquiries through student engagement, helping students to move beyond gathering information, and looking at the process that requires students to provide evidence and reasoning.

1.12 During Collaborative PLC Grade Level meetings, teachers were provided with planning time to put in place SMART goals for ELA, ELD, STEM, and mathematics. Doing STEM students had made cross curricular connections integration of the learning to look at actual projects that could be applied to the real-world skill-based learning. To develop that real-world application, students were brought to the school community garden, took observation of the data that they had collected, and applied information to their math, ELA, or science learning activities. On the primary playground, students drew a map of the continental United States of America using the coordinate plane as a mean to scale up the image.

1.13 Trainings focused on RTI/MTSS, AVID & PLC were provided to teachers and support staff several times at the Implementation Team meetings, Teacher Trained Teacher professional developments, PBIS Team meetings, and AVID Leadership Team meetings. One of the Implementation Teams, the Healthy Culture/AVID College Awareness took on the initiative and assisted Taylor Leadership Academy with sustaining a college bound and beyond school culture that support the success of all students. The Danielson's Framework for educators was implemented to support the diverse needs of the students as well as the needs of the school and its culture.

1.14 Tier 2 and Tier 3 students in need of support in the areas of reading, writing, and mathematics were identified by the team - teachers, support staff, and administrators, and push in support or pull out support were offered by the substitute teacher. Same curriculum or grade level content that met the needs of a small group of students were utilized in the classroom at the pace that the students can feel like they were getting the support needed to feel successful at grade level content. 1.15 The instructional coach oversaw organizing all of the interventions and the area of trainings and professional workshops that were embedded in the daily practice. Furthermore, she had met with the teachers before, during, and after school, pushed into the classroom to provide academic and social emotional support, and connected with the planning and preparation needs of the teachers, students, and classrooms by the Danielson Frameworks for educators.

Effectiveness

Effectiveness 1.1 As far as the common formative assessments, they showed that students were able to apply their knowledge and demonstrate their ability to display what they knew through the rigorous responses in math and ELA. When it came to the result on the SBAC and MAP assessments, they showed that across the grade levels there are still a great need of growth, deeper interventions and professional development, and more scaffold and differentiated instruction to meet the needs of the students.

1.2 Teachers in Grade K through Grade 2 were very efficient at using the ESGI program to provide their students with ongoing assessment process. Furthermore, they were comfortable with using the A-Z Readers to identify their students reading abilities and then to assign a level reader for the child to take home. Improvements in reading fluency, site word recognitions, and phonemic and phonological awareness was evident; however, deeper interventions, differentiated instructions and scaffolding, are needed to boost students to grade level or above grade level proficiency. Taylor Elementary – Goal 1 School Plan for Student Achievement| Page 21 of 39

1.3 Improvement in student academic achievements in the area of ELA, ELD and mathematics were evident in student learning and the post assessments that were administered at the end of the program. The strategy was effective but did not bring all students to grade level performance. Gains were made in many subject areas; however, students at Taylor Leadership need a more rigorous intervention plan targeting their individual needs of the individual.

1.4 Every class participated in the monthly AVID/STEM showcases that were held in the school cafeteria or the classroom that they were paired with. Students were able to successfully articulate on their learning and demonstrate an understanding of the WICOR strategy that was being implemented.

1.5 The professional developments were meaningful providing teachers with a foundational understanding on the writing process and how to teach writing to their students. More strategic professional developments are needed to recalibrate current practices that are put in place.

1.6 More work is needed with the calibration of the collaboration and planning time to optimize student learning and academic achievement. The Collaborative PLC Grade Level Team Meeting template needs to be revised to make it more meaningful for all stakeholders. The strategy is sufficient but has areas of improvements.

1.7 Student attendance has improved, and students feel more comfortable coming to school as measured by the School Climate Survey. In addition, student suspension has gone down from the previous year, and more students are taking ownership of their actions, choices, and decisions in the classroom as well as on the yard. The strategy is efficient.

1.8 Parents who had participated in the Academic Parent Teacher Team meetings had expressed that they are grateful and were able to support their child at home using the skill game-based strategies learning approach. Taylor did not meet its projected percentage of parent participation. Hosting the whole group and individual Academic Parent Teacher Team conferences after school is one of the variables that could have led to a decrease in parent participation.

1.9 Teaching conceptual understanding of mathematics and linking the skills with problem solving strategies are areas that half of the teachers at Taylor Leadership Academy struggles with. Overall the strategy had boosted the confidence level of some teachers; however, Taylor Leadership Academy needs more direct, explicit, and deeper support in this area.

1.10 The strategy was effective as all classrooms had adopted a university and participated at the college pep rallies. Most of the middle school students participated in Career Cruising, were made aware of A-G high school requirements, engaged in college admission events, and attended at least one academic field trip.

1.11 The effectiveness of the strategy was apparent in the student work samples that were posted under the WICOR walls. Students at different grade levels were able demonstrate the problem-solving skills as well as critical thinking.

1.12 The bimonthly grade level collaborations provided teachers with a set schedule to collaborate on a monthly basis. The strategy was meaningful and had assisted teachers with making cross curricular connections with real world applications.

1.13 The trainings were effective providing the staff with the resources and tools necessary to create a safe, nurturing and college bound learning environment for all students.

1.14 Academic and social emotional gains were made inside and outside the classrooms with the support of the substitute teacher. The strategy was effective providing Tier 2 and Tier 3 students with small group or one on one support.

1.15 The instructional coach was very effective with the ongoing services that she had provided for teachers. The needs at Taylor Leadership Academy is great with many new teachers to the site or teaching profession. She excels in providing coaching support, offering professional development, and aligning teacher planning with the Danielson Frameworks for educators.

2019-2020 (Year 3):

Implementation

1.1 To fully implement AVID WICOR strategies across content areas from Transitional Kindergarten to 8th Grade, teachers received strategic teacher trained teacher paid professional development through the course of the academic school year. Each classroom was expected to maintain an AVID WICOR wall in the classrooms with posted student work samples, teacher created anchor charts, student/teacher created posters to assist students with access to writing, inquiry, collaboration, organization and reading skills. Classroom projectors and sensors were purchased for the classrooms to help teachers reinforce teaching with visual representations and provide opportunities for all students to actively interact with instruction.

- 1.2 95% of the teachers at Taylor Leadership Academy have attended at least one AVID workshop, training, or conference. Weekly trainings for teachers focused on differentiation of instruction was offered with a quarter of the staff participation. Two of the first three Data Summits took place at Taylor Leadership Academy. The last Data Summit did not take place because of the suspension of school during the COVID-19 implications. The pandemic had also implicated staff from attending the Professional Development opportunities, workshops, and conferences that were scheduled to take place in March, April, May, and June of 2020. A2Z Educational Consultants services provided teachers with training targeting support and lesson studies in mathematics that had enhanced teaching practices and improvement of math outcomes for students.

Student who attended the Extended Day tutoring with Springboard Collaborative received targeted support in English Language Arts. Tier 2 and Tier 3 students who were not a part of the Extended Day program, received math support three hours a week from four teachers.
- 1.4 Two of the three rounds of the scheduled Academic Teacher Conferences took place. The focus of the Academic Teacher Conferences were AVID Smart goals, iReady data, instructional strategies, and interventions.
- 1.5 Intervention teachers provided students support addressing Tier 2 and Tier 3 identified students in need of support in the area of reading, writing, and mathematics. Classroom diagnostic assessments from Benchmark, Ready Math, common formative assessments, summative assessment data, and ESGI were used to monitor student academic progress.

As an alternative to suspension, a restorative practice approach will be implemented to support non/low aggressive offenses. This approach will help to decrease the number of suspensions and increase attendance for all students. During this afterschool time, teachers or counselors will guide students through the restorative practice questioning/reflection and then transition to completing community service. ## Annual Review – Goal 2

SPSA Year Reviewed: 2018-2019 – Year 2 and 2019-2020 (Year 3)

Respond to the following prompts relative to this goal. If the school is in the first year of implementing the goal, an analysis is not required and this section may be deleted.

Analysis

Describe the overall implementation of the strategies/activities and the overall effectiveness of the strategies/activities to achieve the articulated goal.

Implementation

1.1 Instructional resources that address the social emotional needs of the students were purchased and used by the school counselor and support staff to provide opportunities for students to have open dialogs, mediations around the conflict with a mentor, and breaks to build positive relationships with others. Each school day started off in a calm collective and focused manner centralizing everybody coming into a safe, caring, and nurturing environment. Mindfulness activities such as yoga, go noodle, classroom reads, and so on... were implemented to support students with self-regulation and healthy expression of their emotions. In crisis, the school counselor provided opportunities for students to build relationships with others through game building approaches, restorative conversations, and team building strategies.

1.2 Staff receive and welcome all students to school by names, with a friendly smile, and telling students that they are so glad to see them coming to school on time. Check in with the students takes place multiple times during the instructional day, and students are strategically placed throughout the classroom to receive academic, social emotional and well-being supports. The main office and café provide students with health nourishments, so students can focus on their academic responsibilities in the classroom. Viking bucks are given to students for making good academic and social emotional choices. The currency provides students to have buying power at the student store which takes place after school during dismissal. Students are also acknowledged for their leadership skills and are issued "Caught Being a Leader Ticket" to really identify and acknowledge them from constructive choices that creates a safe environment for all students. Teachers sends homes positive postcards informing parents of their child's academic and social emotional progress.

1.3 Students were recognized for their positive attendance four times a year during the Academic Assemblies that were hosted in the multipurpose room. Students who maintained a 95% or higher perfect attendance participated at the monthly Super Recess hosted by the school counselor. Information about the importance of consistent attendance was shared multiple times to the parents at the School Site council meetings, ELAC meetings, workshops organized by the Parent Liaison, and morning gatherings on the primary playground.

1.4 The school counselor made several classroom visitations and assisted the teachers with implementing a healthy classroom environment, helping students build a positive relationship with their peers, and addressing the social emotional needs of the class through the modeling of mindfulness activities, restorative conversations, and SEL curriculum. To address students with greater academic and social emotional needs, the school counselor had facilitated several CARE team, SST meetings, and 504 Plans.

Effectiveness

1.1 The school saw a decline in student conflicts during the first half hour of the instructional school day. Students were engaged in their daily mindfulness activities and successfully transitioned to their academic responsibility in the classroom. The number of student conflicts during unstructured time on the playground had declined; however, more services are need for students who continue to make poor choices due to their personality.

1.2 There was an improvement in chronic absenteeism as indicated by the attendance data and students felt safe coming to school because they can trust the staff at Taylor Leadership Academy. The Viking Bucks and Caught Being a Leaders worked well with the primary students; however, few intermediate and middle school students had utilized the currency or incentive. There is a need to develop an age level appropriate incentive targeting the older students.

1.3 Many parents consistently attended the primary Awards Assemblies; however, few had attended the intermediate and middle school Awards Assemblies that were in the afternoon. Taylor Leadership Academy saw a slight improvement in its chronic absenteeism and student tardies. Parents were thankful that the school had provided them with many opportunities to be informed about the importance of bringing their children to school regularly.

1.4 Students who needed the academic and social emotional modification received the support that they needed to be successful in the classroom. At the CARE team, SST meetings, and 504 Plans, academic and/or social emotional goals were written to specifically address the needs of the child. Taylor Leadership Academy saw a decrease in student referrals to the office for classroom disruption, disobedience, and defiance after the community building activities were introduced.

Analysis

Describe the overall implementation of the strategies/activities and the overall effectiveness of the strategies/activities to achieve the articulated goal.

2019-2020 (Year 3):

Implementation

- 1.1 Students with social-emotional needs were pulled out during non-instructional time by school counselors who had explicitly introduced and modeled conversations addressing life skills and communication strategies aligned with being a civically respectful and responsible citizen/student. Programs such as PBIS, Restorative Justice, PLUS Program, Kelso's Choice, etc were used to decrease student disruptive behaviors and to increase student daily attendance.
- 1.2 School counselors and classroom teachers co-taught social-emotional lessons to the students in the classroom as well as on the playground during unstructured time. Parents were involved in individual parent teacher conferences, CARE and SST meetings, and workshops that were scheduled in the Family Center.
- 1.3 Students who had 98% or higher attendance rate participated in Taylor Leadership Academy's monthly attendance celebration and were recognized for their attendance at the Trimester Academic Awards Assemblies.
- 1.4 1.5 FTE school counselors counseled students on their social-emotional needs, facilitated CARE and SST meetings, and support with 504 plans.

Effectiveness

- 1.1 Students received direct and indirect social-emotional support from school counselors, teachers and support staff. Student participated in daily mindfulness activities and partaken in restorative justice activities that led to fewer student conflicts inside and outside the classroom.
- 1.2 Several CARE/Student Study Team meetings were scheduled throughout the academic school year. Students, parents, teachers, support staff, and school counselors were all involved in the development of an academic and/or behavior support plan. Less than 10% of the scheduled CARE/Student Study Team meetings were rescheduled or did not take place.
- 1.3 Students who had maintained their monthly 95% or high attendance rate were excited to be a part of the Monthly Attendance Super Recess. Attendance rate per classrooms has increased, however, student attendance did not change for students who were chronically tardy or absent.
- 1.4 Community building activities led by school counselors in the classrooms received positive feedback from teachers, parents, and students.

Goal 3 – Meaningful Partnerships

School Goal for Meaningful Partnerships: (Must be a SMART Goal)

By June 2021 Taylor Leadership Academy will create new avenues to promote effective measures of and maintain existing practices that lead to a positive school culture by increasing parent, family, and community engagement opportunities within the learning community.

Identified Need

Research indicates that student achievement has a direct correlation with the investments of its stakeholders. Currently, Taylor Leadership Academy has less than 10% of its parent population cleared by Stockton Unified School District to be permitted to interact with its student demographic. Parent volunteers are low in the classroom, and teacher parent conferences (formerly known as Academic Teacher Team Conferences) and other school functions have seen a gradual decline.

Annual Review – Goal 3

Respond to the following prompts relative to this goal. If the school is in the first year of implementing the goal, an analysis is not required and this section may be deleted.

Analysis

Describe the overall implementation of the strategies/activities and the overall effectiveness of the strategies/activities to achieve the articulated goal.

Implementation

1.1 (4) Academic Parent Teacher Team (APTT) meetings along with (4) Advancement Via Individual Determination (AVID) Parent Academics were scheduled at the start of the 2017-2018 academic school year to take place quarterly. (3) of the APTT meetings were whole group meetings, and (1) of the APTT meetings was individual parent/teacher/student conferences. Translation in Hmong and/or Spanish were made available upon the request of the parents as well as the teachers. The (4) AVID Parent Academics were conducted by the AVID elementary lead who had shared several college awareness/skills and strategies to help parents support their child(ren) at home.

1.2 To cultivate a Professional Learning Community (PLC) that aligns with the Vision and Mission Statements of Taylor Leadership Academy, school wide norms were shared, discussed, and acted on before the start of the instructional school calendar. To support the school Vision and Mission Statements the Implementation Teams were identified, and the teaching staff were prompted to join one of the following focused groups - Healthy Culture/AVID College, Quality Instruction/Collaborative Learning, Targeted Assessments/CFAs, and Parent Engagement/Inspirational Environment.

1.3 Every Friday, students at Taylor Leadership Academy takes part in a college bound and beyond school culture on the primary blacktop at morning gatherings. During the college pep rally the presiding class presents information about their university to the whole school. Several academic field trips were put in place where students visited local universities and community colleges. In the classroom, middle school students were exposed to A-G requirements and participated in Career Cruising. Across the content areas, students implement their AVID WICOR strategies to frame level questions, to utilize organizational skills, and to learn to read (K-2nd Grade) and read to learn (3rd - 8th Grade).

1.4 In collaboration with outside agencies as well as social services, the Parent Liaison had provided services to all stakeholders – parents, school faculty, and community members through weekly trainings, workshops, and classes that were designed to ensure that they are supported in areas such as health and social emotional well-being, student academic performance, and student absenteeism. The meetings were held in a safe and nurturing environment to promote community partnerships among multiple stakeholders and to organize events that showcased student learning, engagement and growth.

Effectiveness

1.1 Taylor Leadership Academy did not meet it projected growth target – a 10% overall increase from the previous year. However, the strategy was meaningful as it continued to encourage parent, teacher, and admin engagements at the school site. Taylor Elementary – Goal 3 School Plan for Student Achievement| Page 38 of 39

1.2 Having a Professional Learning Community at Taylor Leadership Academy is a great asset to the site. The led teachers from the Implementation Teams form the school AVID Leadership Team. The strategy is productive as it entices others to take on the lead or leadership responsibility.

1.3 Based on the result of the Common Formative Assessment, Measure of Academic Progress, Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium and Needs Survey, academic growth was made in the core subjects; however, there is a deep need for strategic interventions, more teacher professional developments, and the academic support at school as well as home. The effectiveness of the strategy can be measured by the numbers of classes that participated at the Friday's College Pep Rallies as well as creating a college bound and beyond school culture for all students.

1.4 As measure by the school surveys, student attendance data, and the data from the Academic Parent Teacher Team Meetings as well as the number of parent/community participation, the strategies that were implemented had provided community members with access to school resources and outside agencies to ensure that all stakeholders are supported in areas that increase student attendance, academic achievement, and social-emotional well-being.

Briefly describe any major differences between the intended implementation and/or the budgeted expenditures to implement the strategies/activities to meet the articulated goal.
