Tour Highlights

- Ford’s Theatre
 This is the site of the assassination of U.S. President Abraham Lincoln on April 14, 1865. The Ford’s Theatre Society works to present the Theatre’s nearly one million visitors each year with a high quality historic and cultural experience. Its work is what makes this vibrant historic site an important tool for promoting the ideals of leadership, humanity and wisdom espoused by Abraham Lincoln.
 (Pending Programming, Schedule and Confirmation)
- U.S. Capitol Building Tour (Pending Confirmation)
 A real-life history lesson at the home of the United States Congress, a neoclassical building where laws are made, foreign policies are formed and expenditures are decided upon.
- George Washington’s Mount Vernon Estate & Gardens
 George Washington’s many passions—including farming, gardening, architecture, entertaining and family—were brought out at this Virginia estate. Mansion, Grounds, Museum & Film.
- Ghost & Graveyard Tour in Alexandria
- Lincoln, Vietnam and Korean Memorials
 Commemorate the 16th president of the United States, and the veterans who fought in the Vietnam and Korean wars.
- White House - Picture Stop
- Library of Congress - Picture Stop
 Take a picture of the Beaux Arts style building that houses the world’s largest collection of books, documents and related items.
- Arlington National Cemetery
 Filled with the casualties and deceased veterans of American conflicts dating back to the Civil War, this cemetery is home to the Women in Military Services for America Memorial, John F. Kennedy’s “eternal flame” and the Tomb of the Unknowns.
- Embassy Row-Luxurious mansions from the 19th and 20th century are now filled with embassies from throughout the world.
- Enjoy Potbelly’s Boxed Lunches at the Spy Museum!
- Jefferson, FDR and MLK Memorials These National Mall monuments commemorate two of our most influential presidents and the civil rights activist who changed our country’s social landscape.
- Basilica Of The National Shrine - self guided tour With its magnificent Byzantine-Romanesque architecture, ornately designed chapels and heroic sized figures of saints, America’s largest Catholic Cathedral was built to rival those in Europe.
- United States Holocaust Memorial Museum (Pending Confirmation) In a cold, dark building meant to evoke terror and sobriety, exhibits follow the Nazi rise to power, the lives of Jews confined to the ghettos, the horror of “The Final Solution,” and in the Daniel’s Story exhibit, the experience of a child. (Pending Confirmation)
