

Mrs. Ponte's Weekly Newsletter

Dear Families,

Our 5th graders did an awesome job collecting coins and we THINK we won a free dress day. We will find out for sure on Tuesday. This week we are at it again and this time we're trying to just put as many coins in our jug as possible. Thank you for helping to support Pennies for Patients!

On Thursday 5th grade will be selling snacks at the Family Dance! We are asking for donations of Capri-suns, waters, and bagged snacks like chips or popcorn. Money raised will support 5th grade activities! You can bring in donations any time starting on Tuesday.

Math News

This week students will have daily homework to review multiplying decimals. Please check with your child if they say they have no homework. ☺ Thank you!

Students should continue to work on "My Path" at home as part of their daily homework routine. Students can earn a Popcorn and Movie party by scoring 100% on their My Path lessons.

What's happening with Exhibition?

This week, students will share the research they've conducted so far and begin researching a second or third supporting question.

Due Tuesday 2/11: First "Research Summary" due – students chose a way to summarize their research so far and will present to their peers today.

Due Tuesday 2/18: Second "Research Summary" will be due and students will present to their peers again.

School Uniforms

Our principal and support staff have asked that we monitor student uniforms more closely starting now. Please help me out by making sure your child is in uniform each day, including jackets – which should be solid color blue, black, or Falcon wear. Thank you for your help!
