

Mrs. Ponte's Weekly Newsletter

Dear Families,

We are busy with Exhibition and students are finishing up their second research summary. This week, students will bring home a second "parent homework" interview to complete with you. Thank you for supporting your child!

I need your help! I am missing many, many books from my classroom library. Please remind your child to check at home, in their backpacks, on their bookshelves, and anywhere they might keep books. Thank you so much!

Important Dates

Feb 17th-21st: Penny Drive continues!
March 12th: IB Parent Meeting
March 13th: Spring Pictures and 5th Grade Promotion Pictures
March 16th – 20th: SUSD Spring Break

Learner Profile Trait of the Month:

Balanced

Balanced learners understand the importance of intellectual, physical, and emotional balance to achieve personal well-being for themselves and others.

Math News

This week students will have daily homework to review multiplying decimals. Please check with your child if they say they have no homework. ☺ Thank you!

Students should continue to work on "My Path" at home as part of their daily homework routine. Students can earn a Popcorn and Movie party by scoring 100% on their My Path lessons.

What's happening with Exhibition?

This week, students will share the research they've conducted so far and begin researching a third supporting question.

Due Tuesday 2/18: Second "Research Summary" will be due and students will present to their peers again.

Due Monday 2/24: Second "Parent Homework" due. Your child will bring this home on Thursday, Feb 20th.

School Uniforms

Our principal and support staff have asked that we monitor student uniforms more closely starting now. Please help me out by making sure your child is in uniform each day, including jackets – which should be solid color blue, black, or Falcon wear. Thank you for your help!
