IB Coordinator's Corner

Hello PYA families,

As we enter testing season, we want to remind everyone to encourage their children to do the best that they can. We want them to persevere through all difficult tasks. This can be seen as a life lesson, as well. There are times when we need to do things that are not easy for us but in the end help us grow stronger. Commitment is an IB attitude we help our students develop and research shows that when we struggle it actually helps our brains grow!

Thank you!

Hola familias PYA,

A medida que ingresamos a la temporada de exámenes, queremos recordarles a todos que animen a sus hijos a hacer lo mejor que puedan. Queremos que perseveren en todas las tareas difíciles. Esto también puede verse como una lección de vida. Hay ocasiones en que necesitamos hacer cosas que no nos resultan fáciles pero que al final nos ayudan a fortalecernos. El compromiso es una actitud de IB que ayudamos a nuestros estudiantes a desarrollar y la investigación muestra que cuando luchamos realmente ayuda a que nuestros cerebros crezcan.

¡Gracias!
