

A.S.B. Bulletin 8/20/18 – Monday
Reader: Tyna Ruelas and Mariele Jones

Good morning Delta Kings and Queens!
Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance
I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America,
and to the Republic for which it stands:
one Nation under God, indivisible,
With Liberty and Justice for all...

Attention Stagg students, the majority of you have IDs now. You are expected to wear them around your neck at all times. For the small number of you who have not gotten them yet, this Friday, Flashbacks will be coming to get those classrooms. For those of you who want to do re-takes or who need make-ups individually, Flashbacks will be here August 28th..

Homecoming is coming up on September 7th. We are looking forward to bringing back the parade and all of the events. Students must be nominated for Homecoming Court through a club here on campus, which includes sports' teams. The nominations are due to Coach Berg by this Friday, August 24th. Campaigning will be August 29th until August 31st. Voting will take place in the English classes all day Wednesday, September 5th. If you have any questions please come by K1.

Attention Freshmen, anyone interested in being in freshman leadership and taking ASB as a class, come see Coach Berg in K1 for information. Coach Halekakis in PE will also have election packets for you to fill out. Elections will be August 29th.

Appointments for sports physicals are still available for Aug. 23rd. Students can pick up the paperwork at Healthy Start, room E2, anytime before/after school or during lunch. Sports physical clearances are valid for only 1 year, so come in and sign-up now, especially if you are planning to participate in a fall or winter sport. Thank you

All students: Please submit your yellow emergency cards to the Healthy Start Center, room E2, by the end of this week. You should have received one in your registration packet. If you need one, please come to Healthy Start and pick one up today. Every student must have a yellow emergency card on file. Thank you.

The Annual San Joaquin Expanding Your Horizons conference is here for our 27th year!! Expanding Your Horizons is a career conference for young women grades 6th to 12th. The workshops provide an opportunity for the students to learn in greater detail about math, science, engineering, and more! Examples of workshops are Bristle Bots, where students make electronic toothbrushes; Green Power, where students learn about wind energy by building a wind turbine; and Physiology is Fun, where students learn about heart, brain, and lung functions. The conference is sponsored by Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory, Sandia National Laboratory, and University of the Pacific. REGISTER AT WWW.SJEYH.ORG WORKSHOP WILL

This week we celebrate the letter R in Stagg Pride which stands for Respect by remembering the great performer Aretha Franklin who passed away this past week. One of her most famous songs was the song named, "Respect," and respect should be paid to one of the giants of the music industry and all she did for music.
And Always Remember: Stagg PRIDE INSIDE!
