Dear SUSD Families,

After witnessing the events that unfolded yesterday in Washington D.C., students may have many questions and concerns. We want to remind our families that we are here to help. Our School Counselors and Mental Health Clinicians are available for student and staff support during the instructional day. In addition, our teachers and administrators are prepared to facilitate age-appropriate discussions about the events should the topic arise in our virtual classrooms.

The health and safety of our students and staff is our top priority. For additional mental health supports and resources, please visit our website at www.stocktonusd.net/Domain/4516.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of the letters 'B B' followed by a long horizontal line.

Brian Biedermann
Interim Superintendent of Schools
Stockton Unified School District
