Good morning Delta Kings and Queens!
Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance
I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands:
one Nation under God, indivisible,
With Liberty and Justice for all...

Graduation Countdown: 69 school days remaining

The Student Store is open every day at lunch, and after school on Tuesdays and Thursdays. It will be located in K1 for the time being, until moving back into its home in the Spot.

Spring sports started yesterday. You must have a physical. Check in with your coach for a schedule. For softball, try-outs for varsity and JV are 4-6pm on the softball field.

This Wednesday's theme for the Boy's Basketball game vs Chavez is a White-Out.

Next Friday we will have a multi-cultural assembly during 4th period. There will be 2 sessions. More information coming.

Students, Stagg, PLA and PSA are hosting a community event for those in need on Saturday, February 22. If you have items that you'd like to donate please bring them to K1 this week. We are looking for clothes, toiletries, socks, blankets, anything that would help. Please be sure that all items are cleaned.

Want to show Stagg your moves! Ready to leave a legacy at Stagg High! Join Academia Dance Club. Club meets Tuesdays and Thursdays afterschool, and Friday at lunch. No experience necessary. Stop by room C3

If you like to design, build and destroy, come try out MESA Club, the club on campus filled with hands on activities, and competitions. Stop by K9 on Mondays and Wednesdays from 2:30-3:30 to try it out!

Attention 18 Year Olds: The Census Bureau is looking for Census Takers in the 95207 zip code. You must be 18 years old. Bilingual applicants are needed and encouraged to apply. This is a temporary part-time job, with flexible work hours, and pays $21 per hour. If you are interested in applying, stop by and see Ms. Yescas, in the main office, for additional information.

Looking for community service hours, you want to have fun and learn how to deep fry asparagus! Stagg High students have the fantastic opportunity to volunteer for the Asparagus Festival which will take place from April 17, 18, and 19th. You will be helping out in the Asparagus Alley and must wear closed toe shoes. You are required to wear STAGG SWAG! You must be 16 years or older or be accompanied by an adult. You are able to invite family, neighbors, and friends to participate with you. There is a deadline and you must sign up as soon as possible. To sign up, you must go to Mrs. Cruces' s web page in the Stagg website to print out your waiver form before you can sign up. Stop by room C3 and speak to Mrs. Cruces for further questions. You will be given an opportunity to choose your shifts on a first come first serve basis and earn community service hours. IF YOU SIGNED UP LAST YEAR, AND DID NOT COMPLETE YOUR ASSIGNED SHIFTS, YOU ARE NOT ELIGIBLE TO PARTICIPATE. DEADLINE TO SIGN UP IS MARCH 13, 2020

Attention Juniors. Do you need help preparing for the SAT or ACT? We've got the answer. Quest for the Tests offers free tutoring sessions on Mondays and Tuesdays after school at The Spot. All you have to do is sign up online at www.questforthe-tests.org. It's totally free to Stagg students! This program is a cooperative venture with Stagg AVID and UOP's Powell Scholars. More information is available through the Career Center or look for our posters in the hallways. Take advantage of this free service to help you do your best on the test!

Attention all Delta Kings ... Any male student that wants to play golf for Stagg this spring needs to sign up with Coach Offield in room L-3. See Coach Offield if you have any questions

This week we celebrate Stagg PRIDE by highlighting the letter D which stands for Determination with this quote from Jesse Owens:

"We all have dreams. But in order to make dreams come into reality, it takes an awful lot of determination, dedication, self-discipline and effort."

And always remember: Stagg PRIDE Inside!!!
