

A.S.B. Bulletin 4/10/17 – Monday

Readers: Jordyn Garcia and Janelluz Javier

Good morning Delta Kings and Queens!
Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance
I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America,
and to the Republic for which it stands:
one Nation under God, indivisible,
With Liberty and Justice for all...

Prom is in less than a month, on Saturday May 6th. Prom bids go on sale today in the library at lunch. $90 for a couple and $50 for an individual. Guest passes must be approved by Ms. Roberts and the guest pass form will be available in the library where bids are sold. The theme for Prom this year is "A Night of a Thousand Lights." Any out of school suspensions will be subject to No Go List which means you will not be able to attend Prom. Keep in mind, no refunds will be provided also. In addition, the Student Store opens for the first time this year today in the library at lunch as well.

Students, we celebrating this school year with an entire Spring Spirit Month. Every day in April will be a spirit day! This week's theme is Generational Week.

Monday April 10th - 50's Day

Tuesday April 11th - 70's Day

Wednesday April 12th - 80's Day

Thursday April 13th - 90's Day

Friday April 14th - Early 2000's Day

The upcoming weeks can be found on posters throughout the school, posted in your classrooms, and on the ASB Twitter page so you can plan ahead.

Reminder, regular bell schedule this week. The next 2 weeks we will have block schedule on Wednesday and Thursday due to testing, beginning April 19th.

Students, this week Stockton Unified School District is raising awareness for the March of Dimes, which is April 22nd. The PLUS Program will place a jar for donations in the library tomorrow and you will receive flyers about how Stagg Students can march and participate. Remember, the March of Dimes raises awareness and money to help sick babies and ensure good health for all babies. The school in the district who raises the most money will get to see a district official get a pie in the face so let's show the district that Stagg has the most spirit and cares the most!

Congratulations to the Stagg Line newspaper for taking FIRST PLACE IN THE NATION for large-sized newspapers. This was at the Seattle convention attended by 4,000 students. The category was extremely competitive, but the Stagg Line came out on top. Great job, journalists!

Seniors, the last day to order cap and gown or pay off a balance in person with cash or check is this Thursday April 13th during lunch in the library.

Students interested in ASB and Student Leadership for next school year, packets are available in K1. Packets are due to Coach Berg this Thursday and elections will be held April 18th to the 21st. Come see Coach Berg in K1 if you have any questions.

Students, the Stagg Lunch Time Chess Team will be holding a chess tournament. Students can sign up in the Counseling Dept.

Delta College is introducing their NEW STUDENT Saturday for Orientation, assessments, and Student Education Plans. Please come to the career center for a flyer.
