

A.S.B. Bulletin 4/18/17 – Tuesday

Readers: Jordyn Garcia and Janelluz Javier

Good morning Delta Kings and Queens!
Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance
I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands:
one Nation under God, indivisible,
With Liberty and Justice for all...

Prom is a few weeks away, Saturday May 6th. Prom bids are on sale in the library at lunch. $90 for a couple and $50 for an individual. Guest passes must be approved by Ms. Roberts and the guest pass forms are available in the library where bids are sold. The theme for Prom this year is "A Night of a Thousand Lights." Any out of school suspensions will be subject to No Go List which means you will not be able to attend Prom. We will also be checking any outstanding book or club bills. Keep in mind, no refunds will be provided. In addition, the Student Store is open Monday through Thursday in the library at lunch.

Students, we are celebrating this school year with an entire Spring Spirit Month. Every day in April will be a spirit day! This week's theme is Split Week.

Tuesday April 18th - Character Day

Wednesday April 19th - Nerd Day

Thursday April 20th - Hippie Day

Friday April 21st - Backwards Day

Next week will be Leftover Week... the specific days can be found on posters, on our ASB Twitter page and in your classrooms.

Reminder, for the next 2 weeks, Wednesday and Thursday will be block schedule days. Wednesdays will be periods 1-3-5 and Thursdays will be periods 2-4-6.

Students, this week Stockton Unified School District is raising awareness for the March of Dimes, which is April 22nd. The PLUS Program will place a jar for donations in the library tomorrow and you will receive flyers about how Stagg Students can march and participate. Remember, the March of Dimes raises awareness and money to help sick babies and ensure good health for all babies. The school in the district who raises the most money will get to see a district official get a pie in the face so let's show the district that Stagg has the most spirit and cares the most!

Seniors, Cap and Gown distribution will be Friday, May 12th. You will need to have your senior contract turned in which will be distributed soon.

Students, this week we have an ASB election for Senior Class President. The candidates will be campaigning all week and juniors will vote on this Friday in your Junior English class.

Girls basketball will have a meeting Tomorrow, this Wednesday in Room R10 at 2:30

Students, the Stagg Lunch Time Chess Team will be holding a chess tournament. Students can sign up in the Counseling Dept.

Deadline for field trip application to College fair is this Thursday April 20th!

Juniors & Seniors who are taking AP Exams, it is $5 each test, make sure to get money to the career center by Friday April 21st no exceptions!

Attention Juniors if you will be taking your SAT's this summer in May or June, please come by the career center to get your fee waiver.

Delta Kings & Queens have you been accepted to any UC's or CSU's , private universities or vocational schools? If so, please bring a copy of your acceptance letter to Ms. Hernandez or Mrs. Suarez in the Career Center.
