TITLE I PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT POLICY

Edison High School has jointly developed with and distributed to parents of participating students the following written Title I parental involvement policy. The policy has been agreed on by parents of Title I students and describes the means for carrying out the following Title I parent and family engagement requirements:

INVOLVEMENT OF PARENTS IN THE TITLE I PROGRAM

Edison High School carries out the following legal requirements in the manner described below:

1. We convene an annual meeting to inform parents of participating students of the requirements of Title I and their rights to be involved during the month of September:

At our Title I meeting we discuss:

- Title I Program Overview and Goals
- Parent rights under Title I
- Parent involvement at Edison High School (School Site Council)
- School achievement data
- School Plan for Student Achievement
- Title I Funding
- Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and Compact
- Uniform Complaint Procedures

2. We offer a flexible number of meetings:

Edison High School offers parent participation via:

- Back To School Night
- Title I Annual Parent Meeting
- School Site Council
- English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC) Parent Meetings
- Boosters Club
- Migrant Ed. Advisory Council

3. Involve parents of participating students in an organized, ongoing, and timely way in the planning, review, and improvement of its Title I programs and Title I parental involvement policy*.

- The Annual School-wide Title I Parent meeting introduces parents to the parent involvement policy
- The School Site Council convenes a special parent meeting to all parent groups on campus to review and update the parent and family engagement policy.
- The ELAC also reviews the parent and family engagement policy.

- The parent and family engagement policy is also discussed during individual School Parent / Student conferences
4. Provides parents of participating students with timely information about Title I programs. Parents receive information about:
 - Guaranteed Counseling Services: A-G Requirements, Financial Aid and Careers
 - After School Program
 - State Testing: CAASPP, ELPAC
 - Support Services on Campus: Social Services Case Manager, Counseling, Health Center, Dropout Prevention, Migrant Ed., and Community Base Organizations
 - Academic Programs: Newcomer, AVID, Specialty Schools/Programs, Engineering Pathway, Upward Bound
 - Academic Support programs for students who are at risk of failing in English and Math
 5. Provide parents of participating students with an explanation of the curriculum, academic assessment, and proficiency levels students are expected to meet. Parents receive an explanation of the curriculum, academic assessments and proficiency levels during:
 - Back to School Night
 - Parent Orientations
 - School Site Council
 - ELAC, Title I Parent meetings
 - Teacher-Parent Conferences
 6. Provide parents of participating students, if requested, with opportunities for regular meetings to participate in decisions relating to the education of their children.
 - Conferences with Parents are scheduled
 - Teachers are available within 24 hours of parent request (during prep period and after school)
 - Counselors and Social Services Case Manager are available daily
 - Administrative Team also makes themselves available to Parents
 - Student-Parent Conferences, IEP's, SST's, 504's, etc.
 7. If the School Plan for Student Achievement is not satisfactory to parents of Title I students, parents may submit comments on the Plan.

Parents may submit comments on the Plan by attending the following Edison HS functions: Back to School Night, Title I Annual Parent Meeting, School Site Council, ELAC, teacher-parent conference, Mitigation meetings, parent coffee hours, and any parent requests to meet.

If a school has a process for involving parents in the joint planning and design of the school's programs, the school may use that process, if such process includes an adequate representation of parents of participating children. [Title I Parental Involvement, 20 USC 6318(a)-(f)]*

SHARED RESPONSIBILITIES: SCHOOL PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT COMPACT

Edison High School has jointly developed with and distributed to parents of participating students a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help students reach proficiency on the Common Core State Standards. The compact describes the following items in addition to items added by parents of Title I students. (A copy of the compact is attached to this policy.)

1. The school's responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction.
2. The parent's responsibility to support their children's learning.
3. The importance of ongoing communication between parents and teachers through, at a minimum, annual conference, reports on students' progress, access to staff, and opportunities to volunteer and participate in and observe the educational program.

BUILDING CAPACITY FOR INVOLVEMENT

Edison High School engages parents of participating students in meaningful interactions with the school. It supports a partnership among staff, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement. To help reach these goals, the school does the following:
