

HELLO!

Welcome to Victory's
Newsletter for the month of

December

Message from the Principal

We hope that you all had a wonderful break. We are looking forward to a fun-filled month as we close out the 2021 school year. We look forward to spreading a little holiday cheer on December 15 with a light parade through the neighborhood!

We wish all our families a wonderful holiday season and a happy new year!

-Mrs. Carroll

Upcoming Events

- Nov. 30- Dec. 10: iReady Diagnostic
- Dec. 3: Fire Drill
- Dec. 8: Awards Assembly (students only)
- Dec. 10: Santa Photos, $2.50
Duck and Cover Drill
- Dec. 15: Victory Light Parade, 5-6 pm

iReady Diagnostic

All students in Stockton Unified have begun their second iReady diagnostic of the year. This data is used to determine growth, areas of success, and areas of need. This data will be shared out by teachers once students have completed both ELA and math diagnostics.

Please support your child by ensuring they are getting a good night rest, a healthy breakfast to start their day, and are on time for school!

VICTORY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Candy Cane Grams

PLUS and AVID will be hosting a fundraiser this month to help raise funds for middle school socials. Candy grams will be sold between December 6-17 at lunch time for $1. Students can purchase grams to send to friends, family, and classmates.

Spirit Week:

Hoping for snow, dress in all white

Tuesday: Long Winter's Nap

Come to school in your comfiest pajamas

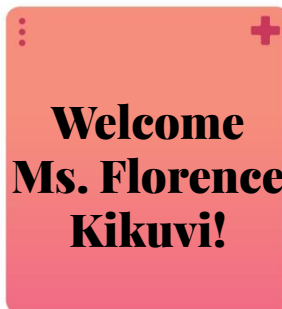

Wednesday: Jersey Day

Team up for the holidays

Thursday: Holiday Colors;

Blue, green, red, white

Friday: Ugly Sweater Day

Ms. Kikuvi will be joining the Victory family in the roll of community assistant! She looks forward to supporting our families and community members to continue to foster a working relationship between home and school. She has experience with various training methods including on-the-job coaching, mentorship programs, and e-learning. Please join us at our next parent coffee as we introduce Ms. Kikuvi to our Victory Families!

Attendance Letters

- Attendance Letters are now going out weekly every Monday to students who have missed school and still have an unexcused absence.
- If you receive a letter, please take a moment to either complete the paper survey, the digital survey or call the school to clear your child's absence.
- For absences more than three days, to be cleared, a doctor's note will be required.
- Please contact our front office or our Child Welfare and Attendance site support point person, Yesenia Gomez, for any questions or concerns.
