

SUSD Resources for LGBT+ Students:

Resources for Families

Our Mental Health Services department has 2 clinicians with expertise in supporting the LGBT community, Tamra Smith and Amanda Munoz. They have created a padlet with resources for students and families and also resources for teachers. <https://www.stocktonusd.net/Page/15380>

In the community, there is the San Joaquin Pride Center, that offers services, supports, and activities for LGBT youth and families. Their website is sjpridecenter.com and their phone number is (209) 565-5023.

The Trevor Project offers 24 Hour Assistance for LGBTQ youth 1-866/488.7386 or Text "START" to 678678 www.thetrevorproject.org

The Family Acceptance Project out of San Francisco State University has wonderful resources for families including posters, booklets, and videos in various languages and designed for different cultural groups. <https://familyproject.sfsu.edu/>

PFLAG – Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays is a national parent support group. The closest chapter is in Sacramento but they have a website with resources at pflag.org.

Professional Development:

We have a series of mini-PD's that were developed by local partner San Joaquin Pride Center. They are at this link on the SUSD website (on the Student Support Services page under "District Level Resources". You must log in at the top under "User Options" to be able to access these videos. <https://www.stocktonusd.net/Page/13595>

The screenshot shows the website header for Stockton Unified School District (SUSD) with navigation links: DISTRICT HOME, SCHOOLS, TRANSLATE, and USER OPTIONS. The main navigation bar includes About Us, Board of Education, Operations, Academics, College & Career, and Department. The page content is divided into two columns. The left column is titled "Student Support Services Department" and lists various services with expandable/collapsible icons: Department Homepage, School Counselors, Community Resources for Families, Student Records, Student Assistance Program, Bullying Prevention, Summer Work Permits, Scholarships & Hazelton Awards, Positive School Climate, Tobacco Use Prevention Education, District Level Resources, and HHI (Home Hospital Instruction) Program. The right column is titled "District Level Resources" and contains a paragraph stating "Various videos are available from the San Joaquin PRIDE Center. Click links below for specific to" followed by a list of video titles: "What it means to be LGBT", "Pronouns of Choice", "Diversity and Inclusion", "Transgender 101", "The Spectrum", and "Why are GSA's Important".
